1. Concept of the Award

This Award Ceremony is a celebration of the hard work and dedication of several individuals and organisations in the disability sector.

2. Scope

The scope behind this award ceremony is to celebrate the achievement of individuals and organisations whose endeavours implement the rights for persons with disability. On a national level, Government is obliged to show its appreciation towards those who strive to ensure an inclusive society where persons with disability and their significant others experience accessibility and independent living conditions.

3. Award Categories

A. Inclusive Employer / Company Award

This award recognises an employer, company or organisation that demonstrates an exceptional commitment to the inclusion of persons with disabilities in the workplace.

B. Employee / Staff Member Promoting Inclusion Award

This award recognises an employee or staff member who, through their work, commitment and attitude, has made a positive difference in the lives of persons with disabilities and/or has contributed significantly towards a more inclusive, accessible and equitable environment.

C. Excellence and Inclusion in Sport Award

This award recognises an individual, team, club or organisation that has demonstrated exceptional dedication, achievement and/or contribution in the fields of sport and inclusion.

D. Excellence and Inclusion in Arts and Culture Award

This award recognises an individual, group or organisation that, through the arts, culture or other forms of creative expression, has made a significant contribution towards a more inclusive society.

E. Non-Governmental Organisation Award for Inclusion

This award recognises a voluntary or non-governmental organisation, from any sector, which through its work or a particular initiative has made an exceptional contribution towards the inclusion and full participation of persons with disabilities in society.

4. Eligibility Criteria

- a. No individual or organisation can nominate or second him/herself for any Award Category;
- b. Each nomination should be submitted by the due date. Late nominations shall not be accepted;
- c. Final decision on award winners is the prerogative of the Evaluation Board. The Evaluation Board may request to meet with nominees in person;
- d. All nominations shall be treated with strictest confidentiality;
- e. Nominations for more than one category are to be filled in separate forms;
- f. Nominations are to be presented on the provided application form and confirmed by at least two (2) persons that are not family-related or not members or employees of the voluntary organisation being nominated, depending on the case.

5. Evaluation Criteria

- a. Relevance of the nomination according to Award Category.
- b. Clear example of positive impact on persons with disability and on the sector.
- c. Individuals and organisations nominated are committed towards the implementation of endeavours in the field of disability to encourage full participation in economic, civic and social life.
